Concept/ Theoretical Model	Methods and Data Gathering	Context/Setting/Sample
Creswell's Theory - literature mapping is a two dimensional presentation of concepts	Qualitative; interviews	Philippine based researchers, 10 interviewed, selected through purposive sampling

Variables (if applicable)	Hypotheses (if applicable)	Salient Findings
N/A	N/A	Respondents used literature review in most of their work but found it to be most helpful in exploratory qualitative set-ups.

Conclusion	Future research (if indicated)	Personal notes
The usefulness of literature mapping is influenced by the type of qualitative research undertaken.	Researchers suggested to conduct a similar research for quantitative researches and researchers.	This is related to literature #x. Will look into creating a quantitative version of this study.
